

As a former news reporter, analyst and commentator on a major network affiliated and on an independent radio station, and also as a former news magazine reporter and editor, and an editorial employee of a metropolitan daily newspaper, I urge that limits on ownership be maintained, not eased to facilitate further consolidation. Thank you.